

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS CLOSES FEB. 2, 2015

Please send a letter describing the candidate's suitability for the award and a CV to awards@nutrition.org by Monday, February 2, 2015

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR AWARD

OBJECTIVE

To recognize the outstanding contributions that volunteers make to enhance, promote, and support the activities and programs of ASN.

CRITERIA

Nominees of this award must be active participants in the ASN volunteer community. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Chairs or members of the ASN Committees
- Chairs or executive committee members of the ASN Councils
- Director, chairs or executive committee members of the Research Interest Sections (RIS)
- Manuscript reviewers
- Spokespeople
- Leaders of Interest Groups and bloggers.

Not eligible for distinction are those officers of the Board of Directors who were elected by the full ASN membership (i.e., President, immediate Past-President, Vice President, Vice President-Elect, Treasurer, Treasurer-Elect, Secretary, At-Large Director).

SELECTION COMMITTEE

The recipient of this award shall be selected by a committee of three persons, to include the ASN Secretary, a Past President who has served within the last five years, and the Executive Officer.

AWARD

Recipients will receive an engraved award inscribed with their name, award title, and year of receipt. Additionally, a donation in the amount of $250.00 in the name of the recipient will be made to the ASN Foundation.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Award winners will be recognized during the Award Ceremony and Volunteer Leadership Forum during the ASN Scientific Sessions and Annual Meeting at Experimental Biology. Additionally, recipients will be listed on the Society website.

Previous recipients include:

- 2014 David Klurfeld, PhD
- 2013 Andrew Prentice, PhD
- 2012 Robin Minor, PhD
- 2011 Janet King, PhD
- 2010 Johanna Dwyer, DSc, RD

SUSTAINING PARTNER ROUNDTABLE AWARD OF DISTINCTION

OBJECTIVE

To recognize the outstanding contributions of time, talent and leadership made by an individual ASN member representing a Sustaining Partner company. To strengthen the bridge between the Society and its industry partners.

CRITERIA

Nominees must be a current (or past) employee of an active ASN Sustaining Partner company in good standing with the Society. Nominees must have demonstrated a long-standing commitment to and engagement with ASN and its programs.

SELECTION COMMITTEE

The recipient of this award shall be selected by a committee of three persons, to include the Chair of the Sustaining Partner Roundtable, a Past President who has served within the last five years, and the Executive Officer.

AWARD

Recipients will receive an engraved award inscribed with their name, award title, and year of receipt. Additionally, a donation in the amount of $250.00 in the name of the recipient will be made to the ASN Foundation.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Award winners will be recognized during the Award Ceremony and Industry Forum during the ASN Scientific Sessions and Annual Meeting at Experimental Biology. Additionally, recipients will be listed on the Society website.

Previous recipients include:

- 2014 Eric Lien, PhD, Wyeth (retired)
- 2013 Michael McBurney, PhD, DSM Nutritional Products Inc
- 2012 Barbara J. Lyle, PhD, Kraft Foods
- 2011 Richard Cotter, PhD, Wyeth (retired)
- 2010 Guy Johnson, PhD, McCormick Science Institute
- 2009 Robert A. Burns, PhD, Cadbury
- 2008 Gilbert A. Leveille, PhD, Wrigley Science Institute