

American Society for Nutrition
Excellence in Nutrition Research and Practice
www.nutrition.org

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR AWARD

OBJECTIVE

To recognize the outstanding contributions that volunteers make to enhance, promote, and support the activities and programs of ASN.

CRITERIA

Nominees of this award must be active participants in the ASN volunteer community. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Chairs or members of the ASN Committees
- Chairs or executive committee members of the ASN Councils
- Director, chairs or executive committee members of the Research Interest Sections (RIS)
- Manuscript reviewers
- Spokespeople
- Leaders of the Student Interest Group and student bloggers.

Not eligible for distinction are those officers of the Board of Directors who were elected by the full ASN membership (i.e., President, immediate Past-President, Vice President, Vice President-Elect, Treasurer, Treasurer-Elect, and Secretary).

SELECTION COMMITTEE

The recipient of this award shall be selected by a committee of three persons, to include the ASN Secretary, a Past-President who has served within the last five years, and the Executive Officer.

AWARD

Recipients of this award will receive an engraved award inscribed with their name, award title, and year of receipt. Additionally, a donation in the amount of $250.00 in the name of the recipient will be made to the ASN Research Foundation.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Award winners will be recognized during the ASN Scientific Sessions and Annual Meeting at Experimental Biology. Additionally, recipients will be featured at the ASN Business Meeting, and listed on the society website.

Previous recipients of this award include:

2011 Janet King, PhD
2010 Johanna Dwyer, DSc, RD

SUSTAINING MEMBER COMMITTEE AWARD OF DISTINCTION

OBJECTIVE

To recognize the outstanding contributions of time, talent and leadership made by an individual ASN member representing a Sustaining Member company. To strengthen the bridge between the Society and its industry partners.

CRITERIA

Nominees must be a current (or past) employee of an active ASN Sustaining Member company in good standing with the Society. Nominees must have demonstrated a long-standing commitment to and engagement with ASN and its programs.

SELECTION COMMITTEE

The recipient of this award shall be selected by a committee of three persons, to include the Chair of the Sustaining Member Committee, a Past-President who has served within the last five years, and the Executive Officer.

AWARD

Recipients of this award will receive an engraved award inscribed with their name, award title, and year of receipt. Additionally, a donation in the amount of $250.00 in the name of the recipient will be made to the ASN Foundation.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Award winners will be recognized during the ASN Scientific Sessions and Annual Meeting at Experimental Biology. Additionally, recipients will be featured at the ASN Business Meeting, and listed on the society website. Finally, Sustaining Member Committee Award of Distinction winners will be recognized during the ASN Industry Forum at Experimental Biology.

Previous recipients of this award include:

2011 Richard Cotter, PhD, Wyeth (retired)
2010 Guy Johnson, PhD, McCormick Science Institute
2009 Robert A. Burns, Ph.D., Cadbury
2008 Gilbert A. Leveille, Ph.D., Wrigley Science Institute